WOMEN WON'T HAVE TO DO JURY DUTY

Constitution and Statutes Both Prohibit As They Now Stand.

(Special Dispatch to West Virginian)
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., October 11.—The West Virginia Equal Suffrage Association has repeatedly called attention to the fact that when the vote is extended to women in this state they will not be required to serve on juries. Such service is prohibited by both the statute law and the Constitution. The constitutional prohibition extends to jurors in trials for crimes and misdemeanors, while the statutory inhibition covers jurors in all cases.

In order that this matter may be made perfectly clear to the voters, and that an authoritative statement of the Constitution and of the statutory law may be presented to the people of West Virginia, an opinion was asked of Judge Frank Cox, of Morgantown, former judge of the State Court of Appeals. To this request, Judge Cox has kindly replied as follows:

"Mrs. Lenna Lowe Yost,
"President W. Va., Equal Suffrage Association.
"Dear Madam: "You asked me to state the law to you relative to the matter of service on juries by women in the event the Equal Suffrage Amendment carried in West Virginia. The West Virginia Constitution, Article III, Section 14, provides:
"Trials of crimes and misdemeanors, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be by a jury of twelve men, public, without unreasonable delay, and in the county where the alleged offense was committed, unless upon petition of the accused, and for good cause shown, it is removed to some other county."
"The statute, Section 460, Hogg's Annotated Code, 1913, provides: "All persons who are twenty-one years of age and not over sixty, and who are citizens of this state, shall be liable to serve as jurors, except as hereinafter provided."
"Section 461 makes certain exemptions from jury service by men occupying certain vocations. "Therefore, you will see that in all trials of crimes and misdemeanors women could not serve as jurors unless the Constitution should be amended to so provide. In other cases women could not serve as jurors unless the statute were changed so as to include women."
"It is, therefore, true that as the law now stands there could be no jury service by women in West Virginia even if Equal Suffrage becomes a law."
"Very respectfully,
(Signed) "FRANK COX."

In this connection it may be said the exemptions from jury service now granted to men are founded upon some other equally as important duty to the State which is being performed by the ones thus exempted. If it is deemed wise also to exempt women from like service after they obtain the vote it will be for like reason.
However, when the ballot is extended to women, if the majority of the voters wish that they shall assure the duty of jurors, the women of West Virginia will accept the duty and cheerfully and well perform the service.

TEN THOUSAND HEAR HUGHES GIVE ADDRESS

Hundreds of Fairmonters Go on Special Train Today.

More than ten thousand persons crowded about the platform near the B. & O. station in Clarksburg this morning to hear the brief address made by Chas. E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, who passed through West Virginia today. Of the ten thousand nearly five hundred were from Fairmont and Marion county.

The strains of Yankee Doodle and the old war marching songs played by the Pierpont Post Drum Corps as they marched through the streets of the city this morning roused many a sleepy voter who might have slept peacefully on and missed the early cars that carried the Fairmont delegation to Clarksburg.

This organization together with Vincent's Greater Fairmont-band attracted many voters of all parties to the cars which left this morning at seven o'clock. In addition to the three special cars to accommodate the members of the Hughes Republican Club of this city two regular cars were run that were filled to overflowing with the enthusiastic voters who braved the chill of the early morning fog to make the trip.

In the cars were a number of Fairmont women who wanted to hear Mr. Hughes and see Mrs. Hughes. They were not disappointed as Mrs. Hughes appeared on the platform with her husband although she did not speak to the audience. The Fairmont delegation was a small one among the thousands who gathered for the early morning speech but they were the most noticeable since the music from their band and drum corps almost drowned the blare of the one Clarksburg band.

The crowd at Clarksburg was a remarkable one for such an early morning meeting and the impression made by Mr. Hughes on his audience was a very pleasing one. When he first

Penna. Regiment Home From Border

(By Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—The Tenth Pennsylvania Infantry, veterans of the Philippine campaign, and one of the crack National guard organizations of the country detained here today on its way home from the border and was given a rousing reception.

After a parade through the downtown section the regiment marched to the Soldiers Memorial where they were complimented and thanked by Gov. Brumbaugh who with members of his staff and city officials had reviewed the parade.

The regiment was then banqueted and the various companies sent to their home stations, towns in Western Pennsylvania outside of Allegheny county where they were to be mustered out of the federal service.

I'M A DEMOCRAT IS DRUNK'S PLEA

Officer Kern Arrests Fighters in Schuck Family Row.

John Haney who hails from Barackville admitted his guilt in police court this morning on a drunk charge, second offense and was soaked $10. When questioned concerning his guilt he said, "Yea, I'm guilty, but I'm as good a Democrat as you are." He probably figured on this little speech getting him something but the mayor knows that he isn't a voter, not having been here more than two months and the significance of the statement died out because of the mayor's knowledge of Haney's length of stay here. He went to jail unable to pay.

Harry Schuck, 19, and Mose Schuck of Twelfth street, were each pinched last evening by Policemen Carl Kern. When Kern reached the scene of the trouble he asked several neighbors what the trouble was and was told that Harry Schuck and Mose Schuck were drunk. As Shanghai was talking to Mrs. Mose Schuck, Mose wobbled up and informed the gathering that he would straighten everything out and right away drew back and soaked his wife in the jaw, knocking her down with a baby in her arms.

Shanghai collared Schuck and brought him to jail. Harry Schuck was brought also. The latter was fined $5 for being drunk and Mose sent back to jail until the injuries of Mrs. Schuck and her baby can be ascertained.

Four wagon drivers were arrested yesterday and each gave one dollar for his appearance at police court this morning. They failed to appear. The money was declared forfeited. They were charged with unloading a wagon on the wrong side of Main street.

Officers Chasing Gang Ringleader

Sweaters, trousers, shirts, tobacco, candy, chewing gum and several other articles were found yesterday by the county officers at the home of Joe Strickler at Tucker station. This haul was taken from the Everson supply company, a John A. Clark store at Everson.

When the robbery was discovered Dave Creemeens who worked in a mine and William Pyles employed in the Clark mine at Kilmar were arrested. Pyles being run down last night by Tom Buckley, Harry Conner, Sheriff Conaway and Tom Bambridge.

The hunt for Joe Strickler, accused of being the ringleader of the gang which will be charged with the robbery of several places in this section, continued up until a late hour this afternoon. He was last seen at Monongah about nine o'clock this morning, boarding a freight train for Fairmont and from there he intended to make his way via side door Pullman, to Ohio. The chase after Strickler led the officers to within 20 feet of him, shots being exchanged for a few seconds with no resultant injury. Pyles and Creemeens are in jail.

FAIRMONT ODD FELLOWS AT GRAFTON.

Each and every member of the I. O. O. F. of this city, intends to make an effort to visit Grafton on one of the three days during which the Grand Lodge of West Virginia holds its session. Several left Tuesday, more left this morning and many will leave tomorrow morning so as to be able to spend at least a few hours attending the sessions. Among those who have gone so far are: W. S. Pitzer, Davis Glasscock, J. C. Glasscock, P. L. Holland, L. C. Fitzhugh, O. J. Fleming, C. M. Merrifield, J. A. Jamison, T. C. Lynch, Burt Knowlton, W. T. Weaver, H. W. Stoneking, P. Hess, Sim Bright, Francis Thralls, M. N. Barnes.

HUGHES HAS NO "UNDERSTANDING" REGARDING AMERICAN RIGHTS

Mine Sulphur Makes Plants Grow Faster

(By Associated Press)
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Oct. 11.—Much interest has been aroused in coal fields of Eastern Ohio by the announcement of J. W. Ames, chemist of the Ohio agricultural experiment station that sulphur will soon have to be applied to the soil in this state, just as is done with fertilizer. He claims that sulphur increases the crop production.

Water drained from mines in this locality is heavy with sulphur making it unfit to drink. At present no use is made of this water but plans are being discussed for the establishment of plants for the purpose of extracting the sulphur.

Will Protect Lives, Property and Commerce Anywhere in the World

WANTS G. O. P. CONGRESS

Wants American Prosperity Put Upon a Firm Foundation.

CLARKSBURG, Oct. 11.—Charles E. Hughes told an audience which gathered at the station here today that in his stand for the protection of American lives, property and commerce he had no agreement "with any body."

"I stand for American rights throughout the world without fear or favor," Mr. Hughes said. "I have no understanding, no agreement, no intrigues with any body but I stand for the interests of the United States and the protection of American lives, American property, and American commerce, throughout the world. Our friends on the other side talk about their policies particularly in Mexico, as though it were a policy of peace. Mr. Hughes continued. "It has not been a policy of peace. It has been a policy of destruction of lives and property of American citizens because of the withdrawal of protection that should have been accorded."

"There is only one way for this country to have permanent peace and that is to stand firmly for our honor and our just rights. I stand here to say that nothing at this time is more important than to maintain the dignity of American citizenship and to show to all that we propose to maintain our peace and security by firmly demanding recognition of all our known rights."

"We propose to protect American rights. We propose to safeguard American peace. We propose to maintain the national honor."

Mr. Hughes spoke for the protective tariff declaring that in its application he would not "add any particular sort of American citizens at the expense of others."

If you want a protective tariff, he said "you have got to put in power a Congress Senate and House whose majorities believe in the principle of the protective tariff. I want to see the success of the Republican ticket in the House and Senate in order that we may place American prosperity on a sound foundation."

The nominee assailed the administration again for the enactment of the Adamson law. "I am not opposed to the principles of an eight hour work day," he said. "I favor that principle. What I am opposed to is government by holdup. What I am opposed to is having the Government advocate its power, official and moral, in the presence of the demands of force instead of knowing what is right and doing it."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for extravagance, asserting that the Democratic party four years ago had arraigned the Republicans for extravagance and then "proceeded to break the record for extravagance."

Mr. Hughes' visit to Clarksburg was his first appearance in the state. He left here shortly after ten for Park ersburg.
